

Can you guys believe it's time for SPRING FLAVORS ??(starting in march):

*Apricot lavender coffeecake

*Oat bars: strawberry, blueberry, and raspberry. Any combo or single is great (just no only-raspberry bars because raspberries are so speedy) No marionberry or peach yet, we'll save those for summer

*Regular scones are Raspberry white chocolate with lime sugar.

*Vegan muffins: we need to cut way back on poppyseed flavors and do more lemon blueberry and strawberry vanilla. Discontinue apple chai until fall.

*donuts: hit those strawberry cacao nib and blueberry pancake versions more often, and use st patty's sprinkles liberally (until it's over, then we can switch to easter sprinkles)

*Cinnamon rolls: Cardamom rolls and sticky buns

*Whoopie pies: Nutty buddy (peanut butter chocolate) and Oatmeal Caramel Cream

*Drinks: we are switching back to our spring drink menu, if you need a refresher or haven't made them before make sure you ask :)

*We do have a set menu for EASTER, but people tend to want to order all over the place. As a result, folks can order "off menu" but only the flavors specified on the attached sheet. Please ask if you have any questions :)
